HIGH TRIBUTE IS , PAID DEAD CHIEF OF BOTANIC GARDEN

Floral Pieces Will Attest Love and Respect at Funeral of Late William R. Smith Today.

The funeral of William Robertson Smith, superintendent of the National Botanic Garden since its foundation, and known to his fellow scientists as the "Father of American Horticulturists," was held from the Scottish Rite Cathedral, 433 Third street northwest, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. In accordance with the wishes of the dead man the services were carried out in the utmost simplicity under the auspices of the Scottish Rite and Blue Lodge

The services at the cathedral were conducted by the four local Scottish Rite bodies. Before the Masonic ceremonies, however, a simple Episcopal service was conducted by the Rev. William Tayloe Snyder, pastor of the Church of the Incarnation, who spoke very briefly on the exemplary life of the aged botanist-a life of love and of service.

Rites At Cathedral.

The beautiful Rose Croix ceremonies of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite Masonry were carried through with impressive solemnity.

At the completion of the services at the Cathedral, the body was taken in charge by Washington Centennial Lodge, No. 14, F. A. A. M., which conducted the last rites at the grave, Worshipful Master Wallace Streate

The grave and ground surrounding the grave were decked with flowers from friends all over this country. Many of the handsomest offerings were from the Masonic and horticultural organizations of which Mr. Smith was Active and Honorary Bearers.

The active pallbearers were Andrew Kelfey, representing DeMolay Mounted Commandery, No. 4. Knights Templars; William F. Gude, representing the Society of American Florista and Ornamental Horticulturists; Ed ward S. Schmid, and David Grilbortzer, form the Florists' Club of Washington; W. A. Singleton, from the Association of Oldest Inhabitants; Emmett C. Elmore, and John Henry Smail, representing Washington Centennial Lodge, No. 14, F. A. A. M., and Sprigg Perry, representing the Lafayette Royal Arch

Tributes of Friends.

In reply to twenty odd messages sent genuine sorrow at the death of the vererable scientist.

Edwin Lonsdale, of Lompoc, Cal., a former president of the Society of Amercan Florists and Ornamental Horticulturists, wires that he finds "consolation in the fact that our good friend has gone to his just reward, for he left the world better than he found it. His contribu-tions to its betterment will be more ap-preciated in the future than in the

W. A. Manda, of the Universal Horti-cultural Establishment, South Orange, N. Y., and another former president of the society, writes of Mr. Smith as "the grand old horticulturist of Amer-"the grand old horticulturist of America, who has been spared more than threescore and ten of the allotted time to lead and give us an example which I trust both the present and future generations will follow. While dead in body, his spirit will be with us and his memory ever green to all those who had the pleasure of knowing him personally."

Many other telegrams and letters are being received by Mr. Gude and other friends of Mr. Smith, who are unable to attend his funeral.

Florists' Resolutions. The Florists' Club of Washington held a called meeting yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock for the purpose of adopting resolutions on the death of the botania The attendance at the meeting was and the resolutions as adopted to Superintendent Smith as one "during his long and honored career did much to benefit the individual florists by his dissemination of a vast amount of information and instruction amount of information and instruction and who by research work, thorough and complete, by his learning, integrity, and nobility of character raised the standard of our profession."

The resolution further states that "in his death the florists of the world have lost a beloved, honored and revered friend and leader, and the country has lost a citizen of exemplary life."

Library Substation For Boy Scouts' Camp

A substation of the Public Library will be established at the Boy Scout camp, at River View, within a few days. About 100 volumes interesting to boys will be taken to the camp to form the foundation of the branch library. Along with the books, newspaper files may be kept. The youngsters are eager for Washington papers. A number are usually taken down on the Black Arrow, the camp launch, and are eagerly gathered in by the fifty boys who are enjoying their vacation at Camp Butt. The Black Arrow was out of commission yesterday, but made her usual trips today. Tomorrow is visitors' day at camp, and on the following day the boys will keep open house for news-

MACLENNAN TROPHY MORMON COLONIES EMPLOYES NAMED DEFY REBELS TO SEIZE THEIR CORN

Patriotic Woman Offers Fight Expected as Result of Reappointments Made on Refusal to Give Up Supplies.

> AGUA PRIETA, Mexico, July 9 .- A fight between rebels and the Mormon colonists at Colonia Morelos and Colonia laxaca, sixty-five miles southwest of Douglas, Ariz., is probable today. Yesterday the rebels occupied Bavispe without resistance from the federals who have been garrisoning the town. The rebels made a demand on the colonists twenty miles away for three wagon loads of corn. The Americans refused the request. A notice was sent by the rebel leader that he would send a detachment of men to seize the corn and sign a receipt. The colonists rewould give up one pound of corn. Preparations for defense have been Nearly half of General Sanjines' command has returned to Agua Prieta, and the other federal troops are only twenty miles distant. Federal commanders believe that an attack will be made on Agua Prieta, and every effort will be made to defend the town.

JUAREZ, Mexico, July 9.—The Mexican revolution began to shift its scenes yesterday from the state of Chihuahua, bordering Texas and New Mexico, to the state of Sonora, bounding Arizona and southern California.

Nearly 2,000 rebel troops were sent 140 miles southwest of here to Casas Grandes, on the Mexican Northwestern railroad, the new rebel base, from which the invasion of the state of Sonora will be directed.

The march of the rebels westward lies directly in the path of several Mormon colonies, with a total population of nearly 3,000 men, women, and children. The terrorized Mormon colonies have appealed to Washington through Senator Smoot of Utah for vigorous representations from the United States.

TUCSON, Ariz., July 9.—According to advices here yesterday, 200 Mexican federal soldiers and 600 Yaquis Indians met in battle at Potam, in the Yaqui valley, Mexico, late Saturday. Between thirty and 100 Yaquis were killed, while Lieutenant Colonel Demott and six federal soldiers met a like fate. eral soldiers met a like fate.
